

Traditional Medicine without Borders Daily Reflection

(due at the beginning of each class period)

Name: _____ Class Date: _____ Daily Reflection # _____

The purpose of these daily reflections is to connect the class themes with your personal experiences. These daily reflections can also be used to set up the foundations of your final paper; due at the end of the two-weeks. There is more space on the back of form, if necessary.

Please see syllabus for more detailed information!

UNM Students: Submit online through UNM Learn

Please select the course number you are registered for OR place the course number along with your name on the top right corner of your reflection document.:

CCS 393 RELG 347 UHON 301 LTAM 400

LLSS 493 LLSS 593 NATV 450 SPAN 301

Continuing Education Students:

CEU Students: Submit Hardcopy to Deyanira Nunez (deydeyez@unm.edu)

**Non-CEU Cont. Ed students do not need to turn in assignments*

Answer all questions on Word and provide relevant examples to obtain all possible points.
Failure to do so will result in a lower grade.

1. Discuss positive aspects of today's presentation(s)? List 2, and if possible, how they complement your personal experiences.
2. Explain any methods (rituals, folk beliefs, alternative healing approaches, herbs) that were discussed or demonstrated that you could apply to your daily routine? Demonstrate at least 2 examples.
3. Address could today's presentation(s) be improved?